A Republican Victory

If the democrats can get any count-out of Tuesday's election with the Old Bay State re-electing Gov. Coolidge by 125,000 majority, Kentucky electing a republican governor, President Wilson's fate will doubtless be decided. And many candidates huddled in New York they are welcome to all the satisfaction they can get. The returns augur well for the next national election which is only 12 months away.

But the result in Massachusetts, where the splendid Vermonters blazed the way to a notable victory is even more significant. As Gov. Croft has so happily expressed it Massachusetts is American. The Governor's attitude in a great election has been upheld by the people in a party and Gov. Croft today has come a national figure and one of the possible candidates for the presidency.

ADMISSION DAY

A year has flown swiftly by since the Germans laid down their arms on the "four hundred battle line" and today we are celebrating the anniversary of the end of the war. Peace is yet in the distance with the United States Senate still debating the whole world upset in an economic and industrial upheaval. But the world expects that peace will come and that eventually there will be less of business and more charity; more peace and less interruption of the strikes; more of the spirit of the Mother and less of the spirit of the Boer.

Two million soldiers are celebrating today the end of the greatest war in the world and millions more join with them. Their sacrifices were not in vain and it is the part of every American to join with them in thinking the situation through and acting wisely, calmly and patriotically in one of the most trying periods in the world's history. "Peace with her victories no less than war."

In view of the recent court revelations in Orleans county, and others in prospect, it is not strange that the Express and Standard comes up with a partial defense of Mormon polygamy. That county has 37 divorce cases on the docket.

A Whale of a Village Meeting

(Bellows Falls Times)
They had a whale of a village meeting in Springfield recently to consider the extension of the water and sewer system. In its report the Springfield Reporter says: "The meeting brought together a large and enthusiastic company of nine voters. At the hour set for the meeting the village clerk was found hanging formidably over the railing in front of the entrance to the hall, waiting for someone to appear, and a little later he was joined by the moderator. A dog attached himself to the crowd, but even then it hardly seemed advisable to go ahead with the business. Somewhat later four citizens presented themselves and the tumultuous assembly was duly called to order. The warning was read and just as the moderator inquired if there was anything to be said on the subject, five more men struggled in, just in time to take part in the proceedings." This "large and enthusiastic company" voted away $11,000 of the taxpayers' money. Those who did not care enough about village government to attend, will do the kicking.

The Late Burns Gammell

(Hyde Park News and Citizen)
Burns Gammell is dead. Everybody—almost everybody—knew the whole-souled, big-hearted "Burns" for he was a long time popular landlord of the hotel at Danville and a member of several fraternal organizations, among them Mt. Sinai Temple, Mystic Shrine, in which he was a long time chief of the "Arab Patrol," and many are those whom he safely escorted over "the burning sands of the desert." "Requiescat in pace" say they all.

The influenza and pneumonia that swept the country years ago were preceded by an epidemic of colds. Foley's Honey and Tar will check a cold if taken in time, and will also stop a cough of long standing. It promptly gives relief, soothes and heals. Mrs. Geneva Robinson, 82 N. Swan street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough medicine I ever used. Two bottles broke a most stubborn lingering cough." It loosens phlegm and mucous, clears air passages, eases hoarseness, stops tickling throat. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

A TEACHER OF "NEW THOUGHT"

Believes "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Highest Result of "New Thought" in Medicine.

MR. A. A. YOUNG

"I am not in the habit of praising any material medicine as I am an advocate of New Thought, but some time ago, I had such a bad attack of Liver and Stomach Trouble that I gave up thinking I did not have it, and took a natural medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit Liver Tablets.

After gratifying was the result. It relieved my liver and stomach trouble, cleaned up my yellowish complexion, and put new blood in my body.

While I am no backslider from 'New Thought', I feel there may be times when a help to nature may be necessary; and if so, I believe that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the highest result of New Thought in medicine."

STATE NEWS

The Wells & Richardson Company of Burlington has been sold to southern and western capitalists who announce that the business will not be taken from Burlington, but continued along the same lines as before. The company has a subsidiary corporation in Canada and branches in England and Australia. The company's most famous products were diamond doys and plumes. Celery compound. At the sale of the plant's company of business the firm was one of the largest in Vermont. The firm was one of the largest in Vermont. The firm was one of the largest in Vermont.

Acting President Guy W. Bailey of the University of Vermont left Saturday for Chicago to attend the National Association of State Universities meeting and also a meeting of the American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations. Dean J. W. Votey of the college of engineering, also went to attend the latter as did Thomas Bradley, director of the extension service, who will also attend a meeting of a committee on extension organizations and policies. Dean J. L. Hills of the college of agriculture who went to Boston will join them in Chicago and attend the two latter meetings.

The Mt. Mansfield Hotel Company of Stowe has filed articles of association in the secretary of state's office for the purpose of conducting a hotel on the mountain. The articles set forth the constructing of a toll road between the place where the highway branches off from the Smuggler's Notch road towards the mountain and the hotel. The capital stock is $50,000.

Guy Cushing, who lives near White River Junction, shot and wounded himself Sunday night, while in what was said to be a drunken frenzy. He obtained an old revolver and began firing at the kitchen door, firing six shots into it. His family rushed to a neighbor's for assistance and while gone, Cushing stumbled out doors and fell, the gun discharged twice in the process and inflicted two wounds above his right temple.

A black bear weighing 250 pounds and whose carcass is about nine feet in length was shot Sunday morning by Raymond Bowen in Pittsfield. Brain was breakfasting on beechnuts when brought down in a mud puddle, where he fought for some time before the bullets finished him.

Milo R. Lockett of Poultney, widely known because of his ability to train bird dogs, was flung Monday for setting traps at the entrance to muskrat houses or places to be used as houses in the winter.

COMMERCIAL CLUB FAVORS EXEMPTIONS

By a unanimous vote Tuesday evening the Commercial Club of St. Johnsbury voted to arrange for a special town and village meeting to exempt from taxation the proposed shirt factory and the Plymouth Creamery, and appointed a committee to draw up a petition to the town and village authorities and prepare a resolution to be introduced into these bodies.

The meeting was held in the Town Hall, some 75 being present. President Ascelin called the meeting to order and the secretary presented the following new members, all of whom were unanimously elected: Harry W. Witters, David S. Conant, T. E. King, R. A. O. Drexler, Edward C. Smith, Dr. R. H. Burke, Charles B. Carr, George A. Barbank, D. Simpson.

The secretary read a communication from a representative of the Commercial Club in the Community Council which would be formed on Nov. 20. J. H. Brooks was chosen as this representative.

President Ascelin said that the new factory that had been mentioned in the papers that might come here was a shirt factory. He said Fisher, Lipton and Co. of New York had 23 factories in the United States, and had about 500,000 shirts here about a week ago to look for a site. In company with the president and Messrs. Leach, Smythe and Beauregard, Mr. Neill was taken around town and finally found one of the vacant buildings of the Hooker plant that pleased him very much.

Mr. Neill told the committee that he was not authorized to buy the Hooker property, but that another representative of the concern would come here later for that purpose. Mr. Ascelin said the New York concern had 23 factories, five of them being in Vermont, and that Mr. Neill said they located here they planned to make this the largest of their Vermont plants and start with 100 girls. Mr. Neill said the wage schedule was from $7 to $15 a week, the girls being paid by the piece.

Mr. Leach said he was very favorably impressed with Mr. Neill and hoped the factory would come here and also get exemption.

Mr. Smythe, representing the Hooker concern, said that his corporation had made a very low price for the building, hoping that a new shirt factory would be induced to come to members of what Lebanon had raised by the overall factory and a shirt factory was a better kind of an industry. He hoped very much that it would come and that the citizens would exempt the property. He said that the present tax of the property that would be used by the New York concern was a trifle over $40 a year.

President Ascelin said that he had recently had an interview with Mr. Davies, the owner of the Plymouth Creamery, and that while Mr. Davies did not ask for exemption he felt that his industry should be treated like the rest. J. H. Brooks said he felt that the Plymouth Creamery should be exempted, and one or two of the others spoke along the same line. The announcement by the president that Mr. Davies could not be at the meeting tonight because he had gone back to Massachusetts to vote brought out a round of applause.

Harry W. Witters said he thought it would be a great mistake not to exempt from taxation the new shirt factory and the Plymouth Creamery. He said a town that had diversified industries had the advantage over a town with one industry.

J. H. Brooks said he would like to know the sentiment of the meeting upon exempting both properties from taxation and introduced a motion that the Commercial Club approve of this exemption. This was seconded by Frank E. Harris and unanimously adopted. The result of the vote was received with cheers.

David S. Conant then introduced a motion that the president appoint a committee of three to present the matter to the town and village authorities to call special meetings and to have suitable resolutions prepared to introduce at these meetings. Mr. Conant said he hoped every member present would attend these special meetings and also bring a neighbor. This motion was quickly passed and a committee consisting of David S. Conant, Harry W. Witters and Edward G. Ascelin were appointed.

On behalf of the committee appointed at the last meeting on the location of the State Normal school, Arthur F. Stone reported that the committee had met twice and gone over the matter very thoroughly. They had also received word from the State Board of Education that the board would give the St. Johnsbury committee a hearing on the matter.

The meeting adjourned at nine o'clock. During the progress of the meeting telegrams were read from the Caledonian office reporting the re-election of Gov. Coolidge. Each telegram was received with much applause.

MR. KENNEDY TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION

Will Act As Enforcement Officer For Vermont

Pending the appointment of a prohibition enforcement officer for Vermont, James E. Kennedy, collector of internal revenue, will act in that capacity, and, according to the rules governing the distribution of alcohol physicians and others, who are entitled under the wartime prohibition law to use alcoholic preparations in their business or professions, may apply to him for permits.

Under the laws, made public yesterday, a licensed physician may obtain alcohol for medicinal use by filing an application for a permit with the collector of internal revenue. A qualified physician is entitled to two quarts per year without giving bond, provided he fills out "Form 537" or the treasury department regulations and makes a sworn statement that such alcohol is to be used only in the course of his practice. This is his quota for one year. He may obtain larger supplies by putting up a bond.

Hospitals are also permitted to obtain liquor to be dispensed to patients under treatment by complying with the regulations prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue.

All who are permitted to use or sell alcoholic liquor will receive permits and serial numbers. The permits are non-transferable and may be revoked at any time. Holders are required to post their permits conspicuously in their places of business. Manufacturers of preparations containing alcohol, including soft drinks, flavoring extracts, etc., are required to forward sworn statements giving the name of the preparation by whom and for whom manufactured, manufacturing matter distributed with the preparation, and the percentage of alcohol contained in the finished product.

The government intends to appoint one prohibition enforcement officer for each state in the country, and he will take over this work later.

HASTINGS

The funeral of Mrs. Winfield Hastings, who died at her home Wednesday, was held at her home in Waterford, Friday at 1 o'clock. Rev. Harold Guy Don Scott of the Church of the Messiah officiating. The interment was in Mount Hope cemetery. The bearers were Elbridge, Edward, and Gilbert Hastings, and Fred Knowlton. Although the weather was particularly bad the large company who gathered to pay their last respects and the abundance of floral tributes testified to the love and esteem that the deceased had gained in her forty odd years of residence in the community.

Mrs. Jane Abbey Hastings was born June 30, 1851, in Philadelphia, the older of two daughters of Clark Calton and Fannie Hastings Abbey. Her childhood was mainly spent in Littleton, N. H. On February 9, 1875, she was united in marriage with Winfield Scott Hastings of Waterford, and came to Waterford where she has lived on the Hastings homestead until the time of her death. She was left a widow by the death of Winfield Hastings, May 8, 1907. For over a year Mrs. Hastings has struggled against the inroads of an insidious disease, being afflicted with pernicious anemia. She passed quietly away about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, Nov. 5. Throughout her long affliction she remained brave and cheerful until the last, as always, her first thought being for others. She leaves behind four sons: Curtis H. Hastings of Waterford, Elbridge Hastings, who is in business at West Danville, and Edward C. Hastings of Waterford; one daughter, Mrs. Fred Knowlton of St. Johnsbury; and one sister, Mrs. William Weller of Littleton, N. H.

Mrs. Hastings was a woman of unusual strength of character. She was a good business woman and endowed with rare good sense. Her qualities of heart were known to many who had benefited by her kindly sympathy and practical help. Her heart was with every good movement, and her interest was acute in all questions of the public good. She had a rare gift of making enduring friendships, and her loyalty to her friends has been an inspiration to all who have known her. Mrs. Hastings was, at the time of her death, one of the oldest followers of the Church of the Messiah. Her life was a splendid example of practical Christianity, and her support and ripe counsel will be greatly missed at her church. The beauty of her character was best seen however, in her home and in her offices as mother. She was goddess of her own hearthstone. She loved home as do few people, and no sacrifice was too great for her to make for it. With love and wisdom she maintained the type of Christian home that has been the glory of these Vermont hills she loved so well. Her family has lost a wonderful mother, her church a devoted disciple, her friends the fellowship of a choice spirit, her community a righteous citizen.

New England Fat Men Will Eat Nov. 11

The New England's Fat Men's Club will fittingly celebrate their 10th anniversary by a banquet at Hale's Tavern in Well River on Friday, Nov. 14, at 8 o'clock. The business meeting will precede the supper. The committee in charge of the affair are arranging not only for a splendid banquet, but for a musical entertainment and some good after dinner speaking. The special founder of this unique organization, David Wilkie, is coming down from his home at Rock Island, and others who were with him at the first meeting are planning to be there. The president of the organization is Willis A. Ford of Springfield, Mass., and the directors in this section are W. A. Ricker of St. Johnsbury, Harry E. Parker of Bradford, Jerome F. Hale and H. T. Baldwin of Wells River, and David Wilkie.

American Legion to Give Ball on Armistice Night

The St. Johnsbury Post of the American Legion is to give a big concert and ball at the Armory on Armistice night, Nov. 11. These veterans of the World-wide War are all working hard to make this affair a success and a good many tickets have already been sold. The evening's entertainment will consist of a concert from 8:30 to 9:30 and dancing from 9:30 to 1 a. m. The committee in charge of the event is Carlyle S. Sargent, chairman, Donald Blodgett, Capt. Wilcox and George Hinman.

The Funeral of Mrs. Perley F. Hazen

The funeral of Mrs. Perley F. Hazen was held at the North church Wednesday afternoon, preceded by a service at the house for the family. At the house the scripture was read by her pastor, Rev. F. B. Richards, and prayer was offered by Rev. George A. Martin. The services at the church were conducted by Rev. F. B. Richards and an impressive feature was the soft strains of the church organ, Alfred H. Brooks, presiding. The bearers were John C. Clark, Dr. C. A. Cramton, Charles H. Horton, Robert Mackinnon, A. B. Noyes and L. N. Smythe.

There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes both from individuals and the organizations with which Mrs. Hazen had been identified, and others with which her husband was connected. These included the Vermont branch of the National Society of Colonial Dames, Brightlook Hospital Aid Association, the Vermont Daughters of the American Revolution, the Fortnightly Club, the office of E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., the College Club, E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., the Cosmos Club, the neighbors, the trustees of the Passumpsic Savings Bank, the Spinn Club, the North Church Sunday School, St. John de Crocoeur Chapter, D. A. R., Palestine Commandery, K. T., the teachers of St. Johnsbury Academy, Mrs. Hazen's Sunday School class, O. V. Hooker & Son.

The burial was in the family lot in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.
